MRS. TURNER,

218 North Richardson.

Has Returned From Scotland.

Mrs. R. C. Nisbet returned last evening from a five months visit to her old home in Scotland. She visited seven brothers there whom she had not seen since she came to America 34 years ago. She visited in Liverpool, England, Aberdeen, Inverness, Fort Augustus, Glen Urquhart, Glasgow and Edinburgh. She reported a highly delightful trip, but says she is glad to get back to Roswell to thaw out as it has been cold and damp the entire summer in Scotland. She says she was feasted in a royal manner by her friends and relatives, and toured part of the country in an automobile. She visited the castle in Edinburgh and saw the regalia of Scotland and the diamond set crown which was worn by Queen Mary, also the bed Queen Mary slept on nearly 400 years ago.

The bed clothes are still on the bed as Queen Mary left them, but no one is allowed to touch the bedding or canopy cover as it would fall to pieces, as the canopy is now in shreds. She returned on the Royal mail steamer, Carpathia. There were 1,634 people on board the boat. 174 second class passengers, 1,227 third-class, making a total of 1,401 passengers and there were 233 in the crew, making a total of 1,634. She did not get sea sick and there was no trouble on the voyage. She saw a large colony of whales off the coast of New Foundland on the return trip.

Why Should We Work?

Work is activity in some phase of our life. Life is manifested in activity, and inactivity would be stagnation, which would be fatal to life.

In the universe wherever there is life there is activity. This is true in the vegetable, the animal and the human worlds. This activity is a necessity which runs through all organic life. The life that is not crowned with ennobling work of some kind, either for one's own livelihood or for the good of others, is an empty life—an abnormal life.

Work is natural; idleness unnatural. Work builds up, and inactivity tears down. Idleness is a violation of our being. Hence it is unmoral.

There are manifold reasons why we should work and no reason why we should not. Those who are not obliged to labor for their daily bread should choose work of some kind in obedience to the universal law that we see running all creation.

He who was of the opinion that "the man who does not work should not eat" realized the demoralizing influence of a life spent in idleness.—American Queen.

Looked Like Her Father's Work.

A certain surgeon had three leg amputation cases in a week. The unusual number of serious, and similar operations naturally caused talk in the surgeon's household, and his little daughter was greatly interested. A few days after the last operation the surgeon's wife and daughter were rummaging in the attic. In a trunk was found a daguerreotype depicting a girl of about eight years of age. The portrait through a peculiarity of pose showed only one leg of the subject, the other being doubled up under her in a manner truly feminine.

"Whose picture is that, mamma?" asked the surgeon's daughter. "Mine. It was taken when I was a child not much older than you are now."

"Did you know papa then?"

"No, dear. Why do you ask?"

"I thought maybe you did 'cause you've only got one leg."

The Mast Made His Coffin.

The Macedonian was sent to the Brooklyn navy yard to have a new mast put into her. Old Jack Stady, bossed the yard then, and Captain Hudson was commandant. When the job was finished and the ship was about to sail Jack called on the commandant. "Captain," he said, "I've axed you few favors in my time, but I'm goin' to bother you with one now. When old Jack goes to Davy Jones' locker he wants you to send him below in a box made out of that old mast. Will you do it, sir?" The captain promised. Old Jack died not long afterward, and Hudson was as good as his word. The mast was cut down and sawed into boards, and the honest soul was buried in a coffin made of them.

Too Tempting.

Miss Arabella Paxton had long since said goodbye to her youth, but nobody had accused her of doing it with resignation.

"What were you thinking of to start Cousin Arabella off in that merry-go-round?" asked Mrs. Jennings at the county fair. She had just received her dizzy and disheveled relative at the end of a trip on the flying horses.

"You needn't look so severe at me," said Mr. Jennings reproachfully when Cousin Arabella had been deposited on a settee and left to recover her equilibrium. "She heard a woman say the machine was enough to scare anybody out of ten years' growth, and after that she was possessed to ride in it."

Queer Way to Display a Trouseau.

An Arabian bride is arrayed in all her dresses, one over the other. She is perched on a high stool, so that they all hang down over it, and one by one they are taken off with much display and admiring comment from the guests. The last is, of course, the most beautiful. The bridegroom is hidden in some corner where he can see his future wife's dowry, which, however, he may not touch.

Servian Cruelty.

The Servians have long been notorious for the cruelty exercised by them in the punishment of political prisoners. They are confined in subterranean cells, with just enough air to keep them alive. The fortress at Belgrade contains a deep well, dating back to Roman times, which is believed to contain the skeletons of many of these prisoners.

Bullets and Botany.

A correspondent tells the London News that being at Palling, in Norfolk, he asked permission of a local marsh owner to walk over his meadows. "What for?" he wanted to know. "Oh, to do a little botanizing," was the reply. There was a pause while the landowner scratched his head. Then, slowly and suspiciously, "Not with a gun?"

Fixed.

Super—No, sir, the ghost hasn't walked for two weeks. Crittick—I saw the leading man with a wad today. He must have got his salary.

Super—Oh, yes; he's the star. Crittick—What you might call a "fixed" star, eh?—Philadelphia Ledger.

Why He Kicked.

"Say, old chap, it isn't nice of you to refuse to lend me that V. One friend should always be willing to help the other."

"True, but I object to invariably being the other."—New York World.

Her Excuse.

Widow (to dressmaker)—You must really wait awhile for payment for the mourning dresses. We are still too sorrowful to consider financial matters.

A Beautiful Piano Given Away!

OCTOBER 7, 1903

By Certain Roswell merchants.

A number of the enterprising firms of the city have interested themselves in an arrangement to give away, absolutely FREE, an elegant Piano to some lodge, church, school, club or other organization of the county.

The plan is a novel one and at once commends itself to the public, there being no outlay on the part of anyone other than the people who are doing this to stimulate cash trade and at the same time popularize their place of business and bestow a lasting and valuable gift that will be a permanent advertisement for them.

Briefly stated the plan is this: Each firm who is interested in the contest, is provided with voting tickets, and for each ten cents worth of goods purchased or work done, issues a ticket entitling the holder to one vote. The ticket can be voted for the church, lodge, society or club of the purchaser's preference. A ten cent purchase entitles to one vote, twenty cents to two votes, fifty cents to five votes, one dollar to ten votes, five dollars to fifty votes, and so on. These tickets should be filled out in ink or indelible pencil, the merchant filling in amount of purchase and number of votes, the customer filling in for which church, lodge or other organization the vote is to be cast and name of voter. There must be no erasure or alterations on the tickets. They can only be had from the firms who have secured an interest in the contest and only from them in return for cash purchases of goods. No charge whatever is made for the tickets.

The voting box is at The Pecos Valley Drug Co., where all tickets should be deposited same day as received. On each Wednesday the vote will be counted and the standing of contestants announced in The Weekly Record. A disinterested committee will be elected to count the votes.

The contest is now on and will close October 7th, 1903, at noon, at which time the piano will be awarded.

Piano is Now in Use at the Methodist Church.

Captain D. D. Burton and son of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, are among the new health seekers and are at the Jordan house. He is captain of the boat Chester which runs between St. Louis and Cape Girardeau.

A. C. White and wife of Talmage, Iowa, are here to invest in Roswell and Pecos Valley property. Yesterday they bought 160 acres of land near town and they will also invest in city property.

In Hondo Lands

The best proposition in the valley today, 80 acres of the finest lands in high state of cultivation, fenced and ditched, with water-right and complete pumping plant sufficient to water the whole tract alone.

There are about thirty acres of bearing orchard, and twenty-five acres in alfalfa, a modern residence, seven rooms, bath and all conveniences. This property is about two miles from the heart of the town.

Two 40 acre tracts, one has 20 acres in alfalfa, the other about two acres in bearing orchard, each has a good water right, and are fenced, price, $40 per acre.

Three 40 acre tracts, irrigated grasses, fine Hondo soil with good water right, for $30 per acre. These lands are very cheap, and are about two miles from Main street.

We have two tracts of the same lands with water rights, improved, and fenced, close in, at prices that will astonish you.

We have four 40 acre tracts without water rights, but subject to irrigation by means of pumping plant to finest soil, close in, can be bought for from $35 to $75 per acre.

45 acres Hondo alluvial soil, finest artesian well in the valley, flowing capacity of ample sufficiency to irrigate 200 acres. This tract is within 12 miles of Roswell and one mile of R. R. station.

For a good responsible lessee we have, 11-12 miles from town, a most desirable 5-room adobe cottage, pure artesian water in the house; conveniently equipped bath with hot and cold water; 3 acres in bearing fruit trees, alfalfa, etc.

480 acres unimproved 12 miles from Roswell.

80 acres, 55 in alfalfa, 12 in orchard and vineyard, ditch right; affording ample supply of water. This is a proposition on which you do not have to wait for returns. It is a money maker from the start.

Six rooms, hard wood finish, bath, all modern conveniences, large yard, artesian water, fine trees, excellent location.

Eight rooms, beautiful lawn, artesian water, large shade trees, with all modern conveniences, at a price less than you can put in the improvements.

Five room house, 100 feet front, artesian well, with out houses.

Two ten acre tracts in Fruitland addition, $1600.

One 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ acre tract in South Highlands, \$500.

We are at all times in a position to show you anything we have, and all we ask is that you give us the opportunity and we will do the rest.

A good established, well paying business to sell.

Williamson, Turner & Shaver.
